

POLESWORTH PARISH COUNCIL

Accessibility Statement

General

Polesworth Parish Council is committed to ensuring its services are accessible for people with disabilities. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website.

For example, that means you should be able to:

Change colours, contrast levels and font

Increase and decrease text

Change the background and highlight links

Accessibility on our website

The accessibility menu can be enabled by clicking the accessibility menu that appears on the top left hand corner of the page. The software allows the site to improve its compliance with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG 2.1)

Conformance Status

The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) defines requirements for designers and developers to improve accessibility for people with disabilities. It defines three levels of conformance: Level A, Level AA, and Level AAA. Polesworth Parish Council has assessed the accessibility of its website by:

Self-Evaluation and is largely conformant with WCAG s.1 Level

Limitations and alternatives

Despite our efforts to make all pages and content fully accessible, some content may not yet have been fully adapted to the strictest accessibility standards. As the technology allows and solutions do not cause a disproportionate burden, we will strive to be fully compliant.

Under regulation 4 the following content is not required to comply with the website regulations:

Information published before 23rd September 2018

Third Party content Audio, Video Heritage documents

Adobe reader may be required to view and print PDF documents that appear on this website. Please visit the Adobe Reader Accessibility Website which provides useful tools and resources.

Uploaded images may not have text alternatives

The quality of "comments from users" cannot be guaranteed

All documents can be provided in an alternative format or on alternative media on request.
